DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-9, drawn to a method.

Group II, claim(s) 10-15, drawn to a system.

The groups of inventions listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

In accordance with the guidance set forth in MPEP section 1850, it has been determined a posteriori, i.e., after taking the prior art into consideration, that the features common to all claims do not constitute "special technical features" since they do not make a "contribution" over the prior art in light of at least Douglas (7,686,403) in view of Barrett et al (2003/0050127).

Specifically, it is noted that the features which are common to all of the claims are as follows:

Checking the balance of a vehicle alloy wheel and calculating the mass to be removed.

Douglas teaches checking the balance of an alloy wheel (see Figure 10, column 2 lines 19-54 and column 8 lines 1-36).

Barrett et al teaches balancing a workpiece through the removal of mass (see paragraph [0005]).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to balance the vehicle wheel of Douglas by removing mass, as taught by Barrett et al, because it provides a more reliable balancing method than adding material, which is generally attached through adhesive bonding and may be contaminated and fail (see Barrett et al [0003]).

Group I fails to teach any special technical features over Douglas in view of Barrett et al.

Group II has the special technical feature of a means for checking whether there is an unbalance and comparing it to a determined mass.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention or species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions have unity of invention (37 CFR 1.475(a)), applicant must provide reasons in support thereof.

Applicant may submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case.

Where such evidence or admission is provided by applicant, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
